NOTHING POSITIVE ABOUT THE MANDAMUS-T OPINION OF THE COURT SUPPOSED TO BE UNAS LECUS IN FAVOR OF THE CLAIMANTS—BONDS TO REDEEM BANK OF THE STATE BILLS TO BE issued—Legislative proceedings—...upper COMPLIMENTS HON. J. B. RICHARDSON EDGEFTELD VERDICT-REGISTRAR SUMMER Groece and Turkoy.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DAILY NEWS.] COLUMBIA, January 5 .- Nothing positive can be ascertained as to the judgment in the Charleston mandamus case. It is now believed that the opinion of Chief Justice Moses will also be in favor of the claimants.

It is understood that Governor Scott, upon full consideration, has determined to issue the bonds for the redemption of the notes of the Bank of the State. Before the Legislature passed the law, they had the opinions of some of the best legal minds of the State as to its liability, and subsequently a resolution to post-pone their issue was laid on the table. The Attorney-General having given an elaborate opinion at to the duty of the Governor in the premises, he feels compelled to carry out the views of the law-making power, and the bonds will be accordingly issued.

There was no quorum in the Senate to-day, and that body adjourned until in-morrow, at

IN THE House, Whipper, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported unfavorably on the petition of the Edgefield Bar for the continuance of the Court of Equity. The report was adopted.

is dead. He was seventy-four years of age.
In view of the questioned authority of Mr.
Johnson's amnesty proclamation, the following extract from Mr. Lincoln's proclamation, dated December 8th, 1863, is important: "Whereas, in and by the Constitution of the United States, t is provided that the President shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offences against the United States, except in cases of impeachment, &c.; and whereas, the declaration of Congress for a limited and conditional pardon accords well with the established judicial expessition of the pardoning rower. the pardoning power," &c. The declaration of Congress to which Mr. Lincoln alludes incidentally has been repealed, but it is claimed that Mr. Lincoln based his amnesty prerogation on the constitution.

THE PARTY OF THE P

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.] COLUMBIA, S. C., January 8, 1869. The action of the Governor in regard to the issue of bonds for all funded bills of the Bank of the state is a metter of much speculation. Sometime ago a tell-tale reporting correspondent of THE NEWS informed its readers, upon "the very best authority," that no bonds for the funded bills would be issued until the Governor obtained possession of the assets of the Bank of the State. Since then, somebody, whether interested or disinterested, deponent the movement, but I'rim opposes it. The Spanish people generally favor a republic, but sayeth not, has seen the Governor, and it is now reported again upon "the very best authority" that the Governor will sign and will issue the bonds, assets or no assets. The same reporter also informs us that his Excellency is not altogether clear upon the mandatory nature of the law, but if it should be found that he has no discretiquary powers, there is then no alternative but a compliance, else he may render himself liable to the charge of opposition to the lawmaking power. If the Legislature has put its foot into the bog and made an unconstitutional law, the Governor is not amenable. So the case stands. It is inlimated that an opinion has been asked of the Atterney-General, and that it is already in preparation.

Another matter of speculation is the Charles ton mandamus case. Everybody and his wife ppear to profess to know what is going to be the verdict of the judges, making it, of course, according to the inclination of the speaker. Your readers may rest assured, however, that no general epinion of the court as yet has been written. Each of the Justices on Tuesday will submit his separate opinion in writing, and a majority of the coart give the decision.

The Logislature reassembles at twelve M. Tuesday, and will, it is believed, remain in session till the latter part of February or first of March, when no doubt there will be a general clearing out for Washington to witness the inauguration ceremonies of the new President. Among others in town is our old friend and venerable fellow-citizen, Colonel Jeremiah D. Yates, whose long gray looks and flowing beard give him a very patriarchal appearance. The Colonel was a member of our State Legislature in millification times, and has all the fire of in nullification times, and has all the are of the old Roman in him still. On his arrival here he was enthusiastically greeted by his numerous friends and relatives, and borne on the shoulders of some of the former from the carriage to the hetel. He is on his way to Charleston, and brings the glad news of quite a number of old Charlestonians having deter-mined to return and spend their last days at their old home. their old home.

A SUPERIOR TOOTH WASH,

SUPERIOR TO SOZODONT AND CHEAPER

THIS PREPARATION IS THE RESULT OF THE combined skill of the physician, dentist and apothe cary, and it is offered as a relatants swelfund for the numerous uncer ain washes now in vogue. The microscope has also been called into use, and the researches of a celebrated observer have detected the manner in which the tarter is formed, showing it to be the work of snimascules.

Substances which Ficinus found to des roy he lift of these infusoria are contained in the Dentallima and thus it prevents the increase of arter a... consequent loosening of the treth. It will be found usefur opersons in advances life, giving strength and tong to the gums, while to every one the aroma and segration of cleanliness after using it will be sufficient.
